

Kindly follow the below mentioned guidelines (strictly) related to preparation of final manuscript, copyright transfer form, registration/payment and final submission. The procedure has been detailed as a five step process (I)-(V):

(I) Preparation of CRC (Final Manuscript for Inclusion in Springer Proceedings Book-SIST Series)

You are requested to give a strict attention to the below mentioned points during preparation of final manuscript to avoid any last minute revert backs from the publisher (Springer).

(a) Please format your paper on the springer template attached with this mail or you may download the same from our conference website.

(b) Authors should not mention designation etc. in the name and affiliation part below the paper title. You are requested to mention only name, college/organization name and mail ids of all the authors. However, they may mention acknowledgement if necessary (at the end of the paper-prior to references). Kindly mention full name of your institution and city name. Put a star mark on the mail id of corresponding author.

(c) Authors should not give any photo and biography at the end of the paper.

(d) Please address the comments raised by the reviewer(s) as far as practicable. The responsibility lies with the author to incorporate these comments in preparation of your final Camera Ready Copy (CRC) for submission. However, it is worth noting that your paper will not be reviewed again and the submitted CRC (after registration) will be directed to Springer for publication.

(e) In case there is any content matching issue which is communicated to you by review comments, kindly see that you rewrite the paper to avoid any plagiarism issue in future. While revising there may be possibility of adding few lines and sentences and it may change content overlap. Please be informed that Springer will not allow more than 20% overlap.

The sole responsibility for correctness of paper lies with the Author(s). Kindly ensure that while incorporating any changes to your paper you do not violate the Springer Plagiarism Policy. In case there is any content matching issue which is communicated to you by review comments, kindly see that you rewrite the paper to avoid any plagiarism issue in future. Please be informed that Editorial Board or Organizing Committee is not responsible if your paper finally gets rejected by Springer even after you have registered due to plagiarism issue.

(f) Cite all figures and tables used in the body of the text. Check English sentences, grammars and spelling carefully. You are advised to take support from some expert on this.

(g) It is mandatory that the submitted manuscript is solely from the authors' own work and not from the work of others (unless explicit permission for the same has been granted). This includes text, figures and tables. Information from published articles must always be cited explicitly. Proper citation is to give the credit to the work that is originally published (not to follow-up work or reviews).

(h) Citations should be given close to the information within the sentences or at the end of the sentence, not after several sentences or near the end of the paragraph. Even when citations are given, exact copying of a whole sentence or paragraphs should be indicated by quotation marks. Furthermore, reuse of part of a published figure or table requires a copyright permission from the publishers that hold the rights. All re-published figures and tables should explicitly indicate the original source.

(i) You have to doubly ensure the format of reference section as well as the mode of citations. All references which are cited must be complete in terms of details like: Year of publication, Vol No, Issue No, pages, name of conference/journal etc. wherever required. [Refer detailed guidelines given in template itself]

All references listed in the end (under reference section) must be cited in the body of the text.

(j) Prepare your CRC (manuscript) using Springer template without containing any page numbers or any special headers or footers. From the final CRC formatted, authors should generate the electronic version of CRC in PDF format as well.

(k) You can add or delete authors name in your final paper. Once sent no further alteration will be possible.

(l) Please note that Springer will make a quality check of each final paper prior to sending it for production. If any issue of plagiarism is detected which is not within the Springer policy then the paper may be rejected even though authors might have registered. Neither the Editorial board nor the Organizing committee will be responsible in this case. Hence, we advise authors to carefully prepare their final paper.
