'Learning from failure will pave the way for success'

The Hindu Bureau
VIJAYAWADA

Failure is not the end. Those who lose should ask themselves where they have gone wrong, where they can improve and how fast they can bounce back. That determines the success, Deputy Commissioner of Police, Vijayawada, Vishal Gunni has said.

Mr. Gunni was addressing the students after giving away prizes to the winning teams of a quiz contest organised by The Hindu FIC and Institute of Public Enterprise (IPE) at Siddhartha Institute of General and Technical Education on Monday.

"To be a good quizzer, one has to participate in every contest. What matters is how much knowledge one has gathered, not whether one has won or lost," he said.

Later, K.V. Anantha Kumar, Coordinator Student Affairs, Institute of Public Enterprise (IPE), informed the students about the various programmes being offered at IPE. As many as 130 teams, comprising two members each, from colleges across NTR and Guntur districts took part in the contest. Gautam Bose, the quiz master, put forth 25 questions to them. The winning teams were: M. Pavan Kumar and B. Indra Kumar (first) from Sri Rohini Degree College in Chilakaluripeta; Sk. Mehreen Suhana and B. Divya Jyothi (second) from Takshasila IAS Academy, Vijayawada; P. Sai Advaith and T. Tej Mahendra (third) from the PVP Siddhartha Institute of Technology, Vijayawada.

Consolation prizes were given away to three more teams.
